25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

25X1

1. For the Executive Leadership Institute, beginning 29 November, Messrs, Enno Knoche, O/DCI, and [redacted] OEL, have been nominated. Although the Civil Service Commission normally accepts only one nominee from each agency, Mr. Mel Bolster, Asso. Director, Mgt. Institutes, told me Wednesday that Mr. Knoche (Priority #1 from TSB) is definitely accepted and there is a strong possibility that [redacted] might also be accepted.

2. All seems to be in order for [redacted] attendance at the Dept. of Defense Computer Institute's Senior Executive Course, which begins on Monday. Our nomination letter was carried to DODCI on Tuesday. The acceptance "package" went directly to [redacted] and I have had several phone calls concerning the contents. Mr. [redacted] returned the necessary security and biographic forms to DODCI on Wednesday; [redacted] will have the photos with him on Mon. morning. I plan to make a last check with DODCI today--then sit back and wait next week, hoping the road is smoother this time than it was for our last nominee, Mr. [redacted]

3. The Special Projects Branch/ AF accepted our waiver request for [redacted] FMSAC, to attend Phase III of the Missile and Space Indoctrination Program. ([redacted] attended Phase I in September--orientation visit to Cape Kennedy and Patrick AFB.) The Phase III group departs from Andrews on Sunday; they will visit Norton AFB; Edwards AFB; Space Systems Division, Los Angeles, Calif.; United Technology Corp., Sunnyvale, Calif.; Vandenberg AFB; and Boeing Aircraft, Seattle.
